Reflections on Readings for the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEARTS ARE FAR FROM ME”

This Sunday's readings are about the law of God, what is it and how we internalize it. It's about external vs internal behavior; the letter vs. the spirit of the law.

In our first reading (Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8), Moses set before the people the law given to them by God. "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe." The law was a privilege, given so that they "may live" and be an example to all the other nations of their "wisdom and intelligence" in following its statutes and decrees. Part of Moses' instruction was to not add to or detract from the law given to them by God.

In our Epistle reading (James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27), St. James explains how the word (gospel message) has been planted in us and that we must be "doers of the word and not hearers only". Evidence that we are following our faith is seen in the care of those in need and how well we live. It is this word that "is able to save your souls." St. James writes, "Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world."

In our Gospel reading (Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23), Jesus appears to have set up a teaching moment for his disciples (and us). Jesus was criticized by the Pharisees for his disciples who did not follow the letter of Jewish traditions, specifically when it came to ritual cleansing before meals. Jesus rebuked them by saying, "Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts. You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." Not only did this lesson teach the importance of internal behavior over external behavior, it showed a more inclusive attitude toward Gentiles who did not follow Jewish law and precepts.

Jesus is not anti-law. He teaches us that the law must be in our hearts and not just for show. It is what comes from within us, not what goes into us that either defiles us or brings us closer to God. It is substance over form, mercy over vanity. Which do we choose?

New to the Library...

The story often highlights the struggles of maintaining faith and moral integrity amid the chaos and suffering of World War II. Moreover, the characters' interactions with the Catholic Church and its representatives illustrate how religious institutions can offer solace, guidance, and community support during times of crisis. The novel also explores themes of sacrifice, redemption, and the role of faith in providing strength and hope in dire circumstances, reflecting the broader influence of Catholic teachings on personal and communal resilience.

Children Section

We Loved You Before You Were Born is an adorably illustrated story of an everlasting love that every child needs to hear. Pages are filled with love, joy, and wisdom of the cycle of life. Everyone started as a tiny little baby, even your great-grandma. Each child is perfectly designed and created with purpose. So, before the world tells your child something different, read to them often how wonderfully they were made, are, and will always be loved by you, their family, and God.

Do Go Gently Into This Good Year

The first week of school is here again – or perhaps this is the first time it has found you as a parent, new school teacher, or other caregiver to young children.

Whether this is old hat to you or new this year, be gentle on yourself and our young folks. The school day may be a welcome change to having your kids at home asking you for goldfish, cheese sticks, no not fish sticks I want chicken nuggets, can we go swimming (it's raining) ... and so on. And I hope it brings growth and blessings to all! But with new routines, new teachers, new school buildings, new activities, sudden changes to your schedule, and more, it's still a lot.

Forgive mistakes (yours or others). Sleep as well as you can. Take three deep breaths and be generous with hugs, as Fr. Tim suggested at a recent children's homily. Wear PJs all day Saturday. Have an extra scoop of ice cream. Pray for each other.

And know that God is with you.

Happy September!

Peace,
Anne Thomas - Faith Formation Coordinator

Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered each Sunday at 10:30am Mass!

This special opportunity is offered every Sunday except on the 3rd Sunday of each month when Father Tim will preside over a Family Mass in Church.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is designed to give children in Pre-K thru Grade 2 an opportunity to hear and share about the Sunday readings at a level of their understanding. Children will be dismissed from church to Room 1 before the first reading and will return approximately at the Offertory Prayers.

St. Rita School
Where Faith and Knowledge Meet!

Back to School Blessing

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for the gift of our children You have entrusted to our care. Please watch over them as they begin a new school year. Bless their parents, grandparents, and all those who care for them. Please bless our teachers, school administrators, bus drivers, school support staff, friends, and classmates.

Keep them safe every day. We pray they may feel Your presence and know that You are always with them. Help them recall our loving words of support for them. Give them wisdom to make good choices, and an openness to learn new things. Fill them with knowledge and positive thinking. Help them overcome obstacles and shield them from negativity.

Surround them with good friends who also know and love You. Help them treat each other with kindness, fairness, and respect. May they treat each person they encounter as another child of God. Grant them the Grace to place their trust in You so they may know Your peace.

Amen.

Much love to you all this week,
Deacon Jim
