

SEPTEMBER 22, 2024

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. RITA CHURCH

Our new parish mission statement is...

Joyfully living and sharing the Gospel of Jesus, we welcome,
worship, inspire, and serve with love.

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

Our new mission statement was crafted with prayer, inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and the input of many parishioners.

What is it used for?

To remind us of who we are and what we are about.

It can be read out loud at the beginning of any ministry or committee meeting and used to inspire that ministry during the meeting to develop or enhance the work they do.

It can be used to evaluate how a ministry or activity has done in fulfilling our Parish's mission. For example, at the end of a ministry's meeting, those involved might take a minute to evaluate how the meeting's conversation and decisions fulfilled the Mission of the Parish.

A ministry might also look back over several months of efforts and use the Mission Statement to evaluate how well it has done and how it can do even better.

This is St. Rita's Mission Statement. It is an expression of who we are and where God is calling our Parish to go. I hope you like it and that it inspires and enlivens your spirit.

Peace,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If Anyone Wishes To Be First, He Shall Be The Last
 Of All And The Servant Of All"

In our readings this Sunday, we hear of the sinful, jealous, prideful nature of humankind contrasted with the humility and gentle love of God in caring for His chosen ones.

There is a new understanding of discipleship that Jesus called His disciples to. It was hard for them to understand the ways of this new world in contrast to the world they knew only too well.

In our first reading from the Book of Wisdom

(Wis 2:12,17-20), we hear of the wicked leaders who put the "just one" to the test, eerily prophetic of the disdain the Jewish leaders had for Jesus. "With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test." Like the "suffering servant" passage of last week's reading from Isaiah, this passage is seen by scholars as a prophesy of the passion of Christ.

In our Epistle reading (James 3:16 - 4:3), St. James calls out the wickedness and disorder of the world that seeks to destroy and offers the heavenly alternative - peace, gentleness, and mercy. "The wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits..." This peaceful nature is most evident in the person of Jesus. Jesus calls us to be like Him.

In our Gospel reading (Mark 9:30-37), Jesus, for the second time in Mark's Gospel, predicted His passion, death and resurrection. His disciples just could not understand this. They argued instead about who among them would be the greatest. Jesus responded with further teaching about the nature of discipleship. He used a lowly child as an example of servant leadership.

This new nature of discipleship that Jesus exemplified was contrary to the wisdom of the world both then and now. The humility of servanthood is the basis of what Jesus calls us to be. He came not to be served but to serve. We are called to do and be the same. There is a saying that may help put this into perspective:

*"If you seek greatness, you will be disappointed.
 Rather, seek to serve others and greatness will find you."* May we lose ourselves in the service of others.

National Hispanic Heritage Month

Hispanic Heritage Month began as a way to promote the history, culture, and contributions of Hispanic Americans – specifically those whose ancestors came from Mexico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America. Each year Americans observe National Hispanic Heritage Month from September 15 to October 15. September 15 coincides with the Independence Day Celebrations of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Mexico celebrates independence on September 16, Chile on September 18, and Belize on September 21.

“It’s crucial,” says the Smithsonian’s National Museum of the American Latino, “to make sure that the contributions of the Latino community are showcased, and that Latinas and Latinos have a voice. According to 2020 data from the U.S. Census Bureau, one in every four children in the United States is Hispanic/Latino.”

For more great facts, see our column on page 5.
